Quite an Accident.
Binks had only recently bought the new 60-horse power Diehard, and when his chauffeur ran it into the garage with all the tires cut to ribbons, he was naturally annoyed. It is probable that he used language.
"Alfred," he cried, "what the blinking blue moon do you mean by bringing the car home in that state?"
"Very sorry, sir. I couldn't help it.
It was an accident. I ran over a beer bottle."
"Ran over a beer bottle? Why, surely you could have seen anything as big as that and have avoided it!" "I'm sorry, sir, but I couldn't. The boy had it under his coat."

COTTON PALACE IS BEING ENLARGED

Facilities of Every Department of Big Waco Show Greatly Increased.

CONWAY'S FINE BAND IS SECURED

Famous Musical Organization Will Give Free Concerts Twice Daily Elaborate Plans for Opening of Exposition on November 4.

Waco, Texas.—The Texas Cotton Palace exposition, which opens on Nov.
4 and continues until Nov. 19, will, in the opinion of President T. F. Bush and the other officers and directors of that institution, be the largest and most successful exposition held in the history of the Cotton Palace. Work men are already busily engaged in greatly increasing the facilities of practically every department. The monster coliseum, which is the pride of every Wacoan, will be increased in size so as to seat 25 per cent more people than before. The popularity of the musical and other free attractions given in the coliseum make an increase in the seating capacity absolutely necessary.

The directors of the Cotton Palace are congratulating themselves in having been able to secure Conway's band for the exposition. This band is conceded by the leading musicians of the entire country to be on a par with such bands as Sousa's and Pryor's. This wonderful band will give free concerts in the coliseum every afternoon and night. This attraction alone will be worth more than the price of admission. It will cost the management a small fortune to get a band of this magnitude to come to Texas for a two weeks' engagement, but they go upon the theory that nothing is too good for the Cotton Palace.

The live stock features of the exposition were a revelation to the thousands of visitors last year. This year will be a much greater revelation. New exhibition stables are now being erected that will more than double the live stock capacity. The present indications are that live stock of all kinds will be on exhibition from all parts of the country in far larger numbers than ever before. No expense is being spared in making the live stock exhibits second to none in the country. So great has been the success of the agricultural exhibits that it has become necessary to greatly increase the already large agricultural building. The addition to the present building will make it possible to take care of many more exhibits than before.

Those who love sporting events of national fame, will have everything in that line that can possibly be obtained.
The horse racing will be one of the chief attractions. There is a half-mile track operated in connection with the Cotton Palace that is conceded by the leading racing men of America to be one of the fastest tracks in the United States. The best horses in the game will be here. Those who love a good thoroughbred horse and an exciting race will have their souls satisfied at the Cotton Palace.

A sodded athletic field has also been constructed by the management. There is no better field to be found anywhere.
Football games have already been arranged with many of the leading colleges. One of the most prominent games will be between A. and M. college and Baylor University.

The War Path attractions, that have always been a source of joy and delight for old and young, will be of a higher class than ever. Experts have visited various sections of the country in an effort to obtain the best attractions that are in the market. They have met with wonderful success.
Some interesting surprises await the hundreds of thousands of visitors to that part of the exposition.

The exhibits in the main building and all other features of the Cotton Palace will be bigger and better than heretofore. Nothing is being left undone to make the Cotton Palace the greatest and most unique exposition in the entire southwest.

The Cotton Palace is noted for its unparalleled social festivities. The Queen's ball and the Society ball have reached proportions of state-wide prominence. The most prominent men and women from all parts of the state always look forward to these events with great pleasure. The committee in charge of these functions are working hard in an effort to make them even more attractive than has been the case in previous years.

The formal opening of the Cotton Palace will be of unusual interest. Governor James E. Ferguson, Lieutenant Governor William P. Hobby, State Treasurer J. M. Edwards, State Comptroller H. B. Terrell, and many other high state officials will be present for the opening festivities. Addresses will also be made by President Bush of the Cotton Palace association and Mayor John Dollins.

DAY FOR ORGANIZED LABOR

Texas Cotton Palace Turns Program
Over to Union Men.

Waco, Texas.—Organized labor will have a day at the Cotton Palace. The hundreds of thousands of union men in Texas have always been most loyal to the exposition, and have done much to make it a great success. This year they will have a day of their own.

A capable committee is now busily engaged in perfecting a program. The union men never do anything in a half way style. It is a safe prediction that this day will be one of the best of the sixteen days of the entire exposition.

COUNTY SCHOOL DAY AT COTTON PALACE.

Waco, Texas.—County School day at the Cotton Palace is the one great big day of the year for the boys and girls who attend the country schools.

They always have the time of their young lives. A big street parade is held, in which various schools compete with elaborately decorated floats for prizes that are given by the directors of the Cotton Palace.

There will be many added features this year that will be of great interest.

has a flavor as different as it is delightful. You never tasted the like of it!
And that isn't strange, either.

top that keeps the tobacco in such clearest trim—always!

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. A. a tryout certainly have a big surprise and a lot of enjoyment
